Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—David E. Sherrick, ex-auditor of state, was arraigned at the police station this morning, charged with embezzlement of the state's funds. He waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury under heavy bonds.

Because of the large number of cases before him, Judge Whalen postponed the hearing to this morning at 10 o'clock in the afternoon. In the meantime Sherrick was under the guard of a detective.

Sherrick looked very broken at the police station and refused to talk concerning the case, sending all inquiries to his attorney, Addison J. Harris. Mr. Harris was with him at the station.

Dense Masses of Workmen March
Upon Hungarian Diet.

WORK AT A STANDSTILL

CABINET RESIGNS AND HOUSE IS PROROGUED.

Budapest, Sept. 15.—Since early this morning dense masses of workmen have been marching to the lower house of the diet for the purpose of making a demonstration in favor of universal suffrage. Crowds composed of other classes also gathered and strong cordons of police were posted near the building. Herr Julius Justh, president of the house, received the deputations, who presented petitions setting forth the demands of the people. In reply Herr Justh asked his position as president of the house prevented him from expressing an opinion, but he begged the people to await quietly the decision of parliament.

Work is at a standstill in all of the factories, as the workers are taking part in the demonstration. No disturbances had occurred up to the time this dispatch was filed.

Cabinet Resigns.

On the reopening of the diet today, Baron Fejervary formally announced the resignation of the cabinet and the prorogation of parliament until Oct. 10 to enable the coalition parties to submit a programme to the king-emperor, Francis Joseph.

There was marked tension on all sides when Baron Fejervary rose to address the legislators. The resignation of the cabinet, he declared, was necessitated by an overwhelming force of circumstances which prevented the government from carrying out the programme with which it had been entrusted.

House Prorogued.

"His majesty," proceeded the minister, "has authorized me to say that he wishes to form a government from the ranks of the majority after an agreement on an acceptable programme. In order to enable the coalition parties to submit proposals to his majesty, the house is prorogued until Oct. 10."

The announcement, vigorously protested against the prorogation of parliament as being unconstitutional. A motion by Kossuth to this sense was adopted and the house adjourned amid great excitement.

Well Known Baseball Pitcher Passes
Away in Ogden.

Louis Chester Shurtliff, one of the best known and highest esteemed young men of Ogden, died unexpectedly yesterday morning at the Ogden general hospital, as a result of an operation for appendicitis, which was performed Wednesday.

He revived from the operation and seemed to get along all right until about midnight, when he took a sudden change for the worse and gradually sank until the end came at 5:30 a. m. His young wife, a bride of only six months, his parents and his family were at the bedside when his spirit took its departure and his death brought sorrow and grief to all who knew him.

He was very popular. In the early part of the summer he was afflicted with appendicitis and underwent an operation on July 25. He did not gain strength after the operation and was unable to do any work. A week ago he suffered considerably with pain and a second operation was decided upon, which resulted as stated above.

Chester Shurtliff was born at Plain City, Weber county, Feb. 17, 1881, but with his parents, Louis C. and Alice, moved to Ogden, where he resided in Ogden the greater part of his life. He was the son of a well known family in the Weber stake. March 3, 1905, he was married to Miss Maud Carver, daughter of J. S. Carver, the grocer, and during recent years he has become quite prominent in baseball circles, being one of the best amateur pitchers in Utah.

The funeral services will be held Sunday at 12 o'clock at the Third ward funeral home. Those desiring to view his remains may do so at the home of his parents, near the Washington street bridge, Sunday, between the hours of 9 and 11 a. m.

TRIAL OF HUGH WATT.

Former Member of Parliament Is Charged With Serious Crime.

London, Sept. 15.—The Marlborough police court today resumed the trial of Hugh Watt, a former member of parliament, on the charge of attempting to hire a private detective to assist him in murdering his former wife. The prosecuting counsel, Mr. Sims, presented two new witnesses, who he said would swear that Watt incited them to murder the former wife and her husband, Reginald Beauchamp.

The first of these witnesses, a man named Varley, who sells newspapers on the streets, told that he received various sums of money from Watt, who wanted him to kill the woman by chloroforming her or by using any other violent means, and who gave him instructions as to how to gain access to her apartments. The witness also swore that Watt incited him to kill Sir Reginald Beauchamp, suggesting that he could run over him on a bicycle or follow him to Algiers, where he could get the "blacks to do the job."

The witness described various interviews he had with Watt. He said he would run over him on a bicycle or follow him to Algiers, where he could get the "blacks to do the job."

GOULD FIGHTING FOR WABASH

Joseph Ramsey Wants to Retain Control.

SON GIVES OUT STATEMENT

LOOKS LIKE ROCKEFELLERS TRY TO EMBARRASS GOULD.

New York, Sept. 15.—Joseph Ramsey, formerly president of the Wabash railroad, has issued a public statement in which he asks stockholders of the road for proxies in his name for use at the annual election of directors, to be held at Toledo, O., on Oct. 10.

From the wording of this statement, says the Herald, it is believed an attempt is being made to dispute the control of the property with George J. Gould. The serious contemplation of any such attempt, however, is deemed in railroad circles, as it is stated to be the policy of the Goulds to retain 40 per cent of the stock of their property, and in the event of a contest it would be the duty of the Goulds to vote at the annual election of directors, to be held at Toledo, O., on Oct. 10.

George J. Gould is at the summer home in the Catskills, and the chief executives of his various railroad properties in the city when Mr. Ramsey's statement appeared. The city when Mr. Ramsey's statement appeared.

It was semi-officially stated only recently that Mr. Gould expected to become active head of the Wabash system to succeed Mr. Ramsey.

Ramsey Makes Statement.

Pittsburg, Sept. 15.—The majority debenture and stockholders of the Wabash railroad company honor men with their proxies to vote at the annual election on the second term of Oct. 1, and I am placed in control of the company's affairs. I have their money operated entirely independent of all other interests than those of the debenture and stockholders. I wish to state emphatically the statement that there is no connection between the Wabash and Vanderbilt or New York Central interests, or with the Pennsylvania interests, and that the Wabash is not a part of any other purpose than giving the return to those who have their money invested there.

The statement was made today by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash, with whom the large Gould interest in the property are now at variance.

GREAT SURPRISE EXPRESSED.

Son of Ramsey Talks of His Father's Intentions.

New York, Sept. 15.—Great surprise was expressed in the financial district today when the public appeal of Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash railroad, to the stockholders of the company to continue him in office became known.

At the offices of George J. Gould no statement could be obtained. John P. Ramsey, son of the president, was asked today:

"At what do you estimate the holdings of the Gould party?"

"I understand that they amount to 40 per cent," he replied.

"The next largest owners are the Rockefellers, are they not?"

"That is my understanding," replied Mr. Ramsey.

"My father," he continued, "has a report of several large stockholders in the fight and, of course, expects to win. There has been some dissatisfaction as to the way the road has been applied. The views of my father on this point have clashed with those of Mr. Gould."

Must Leave or Fight.

"There were only two ways of getting over this difficulty," he said, "either leave the company or else the control should be turned over to the interests not in sympathy with the Gould party. I was asked to surrender the office of president, and was for doing so at once, but holders of large blocks of Wabash securities persuaded him not to do so. The switchers, however, would like him to sever his connection with the company at the expiration of his term. While some of the stockholders are in favor of his continuing, others are not."

"I really cannot say," he replied.

working out the new plan of street sprinkling during the evening and all were well satisfied. But with none of the satisfaction any keener than with Fire Chief Bywater. He has maintained all along that the department was in shape to cope with a fire of proportions at any time. The use of gutter water, an old plan in Salt Lake City, used years ago in fire fighting, has been held up his sleeve as a trump card for weeks. More than that, he pointed out the springing period last night, one at Second South and State streets, and the other near the Deseret National bank as reserve forces.

Meantime street sprinkling will go right on, without recourse to the city water mains.

Hines Has Another Idea.

Frank L. Hines, superintendent of waterworks, yesterday suggested to the city council waterworks committee that it might be a good idea to ask the mayor and the council to prohibit lawn sprinkling entirely for a while and to omit water taxes for the month of September and October, or as long as the restriction continued. Mr. Hines' idea is that so long as citizens pay water taxes they will feel they have a right to use more or less water for sprinkling purposes. The committee took the suggestion under advisement and may offer it to the council.

The Thirtieth East reservoir had only a few inches of water in it to meet the springing period last night, and the few inches were soon cleaned out. The expected shortage came and remained for an hour or two, although it was not so pronounced as on Tuesday evening.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Hon. IRA EDGAR RIDER

Kidney Diseases Prey Upon Muscles, Brain and Nerves—Keep You Weak, Languid and Nervous. Doan's Kidney Pills Cure Such Kidneys.

A man or woman may be, to all outward appearances, perfectly well, and yet feel weak, nervous and suffer from backache and urinary troubles. That person is not well at all. Very likely the kidneys are sick, for the first effect of sick kidneys is to congest and impair blood, which causes nervousness, backache and headache. A second effect is to urinate, which brings chronic pains, sediment in the urine, gravel, stone in the kidney, gout, etc. An advanced stage of kidney troubles is marked by daily loss of albumen through the urine and consequent failure of energy, weight and appetite.

Examining the urine. If it is too red, or too pale, if there is a bad odor, or a deposit of sediment, and if passages are too frequent or scanty, it's time to treat the kidneys. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, a kidney remedy that has cured many a stubborn case among your own townpeople.

Salt Lake City Testimony.

Thomas Smith, paper hanger, of 123 South Main street, says: "A slight pain in my back, coupled with a disturbed action of the kidney secretions, led me to reason that if my kidneys were at fault a stitch in time would save nine, and the present was the time to act, for kidney complaint is so gradual and insidious in its dealings with ordinary mortals that complications are apt to arise which lead to serious trouble. I tried a remedy very strongly advertised to cure kidney complaint, and gave it a fair trial, but it failed to stop my backache. Then I went for Doan's Kidney Pills to the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store and commenced the treatment. It only required a dose or two to tell me that they were acting just as promised. After their use for some time the backache and irregularity of the kidney secretions absolutely stopped."
